The Queenslander Pictorial.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR

Volunteer nurses from Paris, who worked in Arras all through the bombardment.

Dinner time in the British lines at the front.

A GERMAN RAID.

Two of the "fortified seaports" on the English coast which German cruisers bombarded last week.—From material supplied by Messrs. T. Foster, H. Dean, J. W. Adamson, J. T. Bolton, and T. Andrew.

THE TOWN HALL, SCARBOROUGH, DAMAGED BY GERMAN SHELLS.

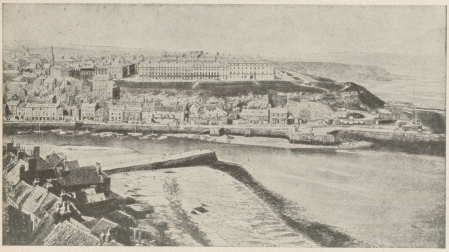
THE SOUTH SANDS AT SCARBOROUGH.
A good sample of the "fortified seaport" shelled by German ships.

ST. MARTIN'S CHURCH, SCARBOROUGH.
Which also received attention.

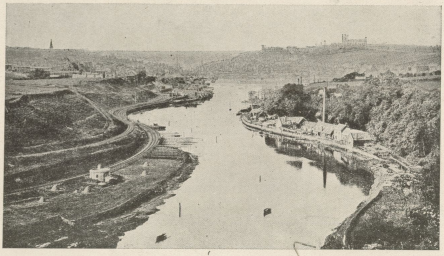
THE OLD KEEP, SCARBOROUGH CASTLE.
A picturesque relic, which the Germans thought needed razing.

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF SCARBOROUGH FROM THE SEA.

THE SOUTH BAY, SCARBORQUGH.
The tall building on the foreshore, with four domes, is the Grand Hotel, which received some of the German shells.



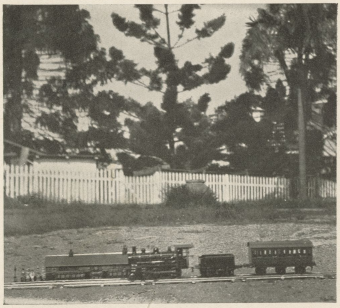
WEST CLIFF, WHITBY.
Another "fortified seaport" of England raided by the German cruisers.



ANOTHER VIEW OF WHITBY, FROM LARPOOL.
This quaint old place evidently looked dangerous to the Germans.

AUSTRALIA'S CHRISTMAS BOX.
—Design by E. Richardson.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.
Tree in Mr. Cole's paddock, En oggera, damaged by lightning last week.
—Wilson photo.



A BRISBANE BOY'S MODEL RAILWAY.
